

October 24, 2005

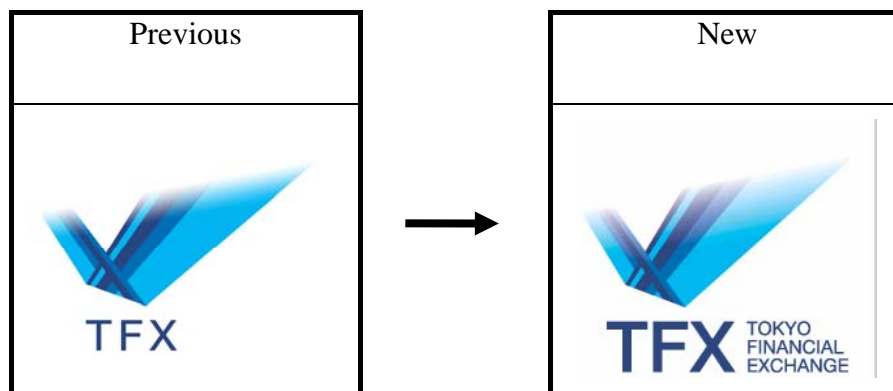

Tokyo Financial Exchange Inc.

Notification concerning Corporate Logo

Commencing on April 25th this year, the anniversary of the foundation of this exchange, TIFFE has newly become TFX and accordingly renewed its corporate logo.

TFX will be increasing its activities in the global market in the coming years, and it is determined to further establish its new presence outside Japan. It is in this way that we have decided to have the full company name "Tokyo Financial Exchange" accompany the corporate logo.

All at TFX will continue to give its full effort to further establish the Tokyo financial market as one of the three major global markets in the world.

*The Japanese version of the corporate logo will remain as is.