5.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 5.1 and 5.2 above, the Exchange may accept a cancellation requested by an FX Margin Trading Member of its bids or offers in accordance with the conditions separately prescribed by the Exchange.

5.4 The Exchange may temporarily change the pre-open period set forth in Articles 5.1(1) and 5.2(1) above and the Market Trading Period set forth in Articles 5.1(2) and 5.2(2) above when the Exchange deems necessary to do so. In this case, the Exchange shall give an advance notice to that effect to the FX Margin Trading Members.

Article 6. Exchange Holiday, etc.

6.1 The Exchange Holidays for Exchange FX Margin transactions shall be as follows.

- (1) Sundays
- (2) Saturdays
- (3) January 1

(4) January 2, if January 1 falls on Sunday

6.2 The Exchange may designate an ad hoc holiday for Exchange FX Margin transactions when the Exchange deems necessary to do so.

6.3 No matching for Exchange FX Margin transactions shall be conducted on the Exchange Holidays; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to the Market Trading Period as set forth in Article 5.1(2) and Article 5.2(2) hereof when the calendar day immediately preceding an Exchange Holiday is a business day.

Article 7. Business Day

A business day of the Exchange's financial instruments market for Exchange FX Margin transactions shall be a day other than the Exchange Holidays set forth in Items (1) through (4) of Article 6.1 hereof and an ad hoc holidays set forth in Article 6.2 hereof.

Article 8. Trading Day

A trading day on the Exchange for Exchange FX Margin transactions shall be a period commencing at the opening of the pre-open period that starts on a specific business day and ending at the close of the Market Trading Period following the said pre-open period.

Article 9. Notice of Temporary Suspension and Off-hour Matching

When the Exchange determines to have an ad hoc holiday or a temporary suspension of matching for Exchange FX Margin transactions, the Exchange shall give an advance notice to that effect to the FX Margin Trading Members. Should the Exchange determine to conduct matching during non-trading hours, the Exchange shall give a notice to that effect to the FX Margin Trading Members two (2) business days before such date of off-hour matching.

CHAPTER IX.

FX Market Maker

Article 10. Designation of FX Market Maker

10.1 In accordance with the conditions separately prescribed by the Exchange, the Exchange shall seek applications from FX Margin Trading Members and persons currently applying for FX Margin Trading Membership (hereinafter called “FX Margin Trading Membership applicant(s)”) who desire to be designated as FX Market Maker, and the Exchange shall designate such FX Margin Trading Member(s) or FX Margin Trading Membership applicant(s) as FX Market Maker who will be determined as being qualified after conducting a screening of those who have applied for designation as FX Market Maker.

10.2 Matters necessary for designation of FX Market Makers shall be separately prescribed by the Exchange.

Article 11. Obligations of FX Market Makers

11.1 An FX Market Maker shall continuously submit an MM bid and offer for the Exchange FX Margin transactions for which it is obligated to submit an MM bid and offer, during the designated market-making period separately prescribed by the Exchange, pursuant to the conditions separately prescribed by the Exchange, and through the FX Trading and Clearing System.

11.2 When a non-MM bid or non-MM offer corresponding to an MM offer or MM bid submitted by an FX Market Maker is inputted into the FX Trading and Clearing System, the FX Market Maker shall execute a contract.

11.3 If all the MM bids and offers submitted under Article 11.1 above are matched for their entire volume pursuant to Article 11.2 above, the FX Market Maker shall promptly submit a new MM bid and MM offer.

11.4 With respect to the Exchange FX Margin transactions for which it is obligated to submit an MM bid and offer, the FX Market Maker shall present an amount to be used by the Exchange as the basis for calculating a swap point pursuant to Article 90-6 of the Clearing Regulations (hereinafter called the “referential swap point”) during the period of time separately prescribed by the Exchange in the manner designated by the Exchange.

11.5 If an FX Market Maker notifies the Exchange of its intention to suspend submission of MM bids and offers and presentation of referential swap points with respect to any one or all of the Exchange FX Margin transactions for which it is obligated to submit an MM bid and offer due to any of the following reasons and the Exchange determines that such suspension is appropriate, the FX Market Maker shall be allowed to suspend the submission of MM bids and offers and the presentation of referential swap points as aforesaid, regardless of the provisions of Articles 11.1 through 11.4 above.

- (1) When submitting an MM bid or offer or presenting a referential swap point may possibly result in violation of any applicable law
- (2) When the FX Market Maker has been imposed disciplinary measures (but limited to those relating to market derivatives transactions, etc. or transactions on commodity markets) by the competent administrative authorities in accordance with the Acts, the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Acts or the Commodity Exchange Acts or any laws and regulations thereunder, or any similar laws or regulations in foreign countries, or other disciplinary measures by the Exchange in accordance with its Articles of Incorporation, Trading Regulations, Brokering Terms, Clearing Regulations or other applicable regulations, such disciplinary measures of which will have caused the suspension or limitation of the market derivatives transactions concluded by bids or offers of the Market Maker on the Exchange.
- (3) When submitting an MM bid or offer or presenting a referential swap point may possibly disregard investor protection or harm the fairness of trading, or erode trust in financial instruments business or cause any other similar circumstances

11.6 When the Exchange confirms the existence of any of the events mentioned in Article 11.5 above, or when the Exchange considers it necessary, the Exchange may cause an FX Market Maker to suspend submission of MM bids and offers and presentation of referential swap points, without recourse to notification by the FX Market Maker.

11.7 When the FX Market Maker who has suspended submission of MM bids and offers and presentation of referential swap points under Article 11.5 or 11.6 above notifies the Exchange of its intention to resume such submission and presentation and the Exchange determines that such resumption is appropriate, or when the Exchange determines that the event causing such suspension has been eliminated and notifies the FX Market Maker to that effect, the FX Market Maker shall submit MM bids and offers and present swap points without delay.

11.8 Each FX Market Maker shall reasonably and faithfully fulfill its obligations in light of the significance of its acceptance of designation as FX Market Maker. In addition to those set forth herein, other obligations of FX Market Makers in their FX Market-Making shall be separately prescribed by the Exchange.

Article 12. Prohibited Acts of FX Market Makers

An FX Market Maker shall not commit any of the following acts.

- (1) Delay in submitting an MM bid or offer, or submission of an MM bid or offer that materially deviates from current market prices
- (2) Presentation of a referential swap point that materially deviates from current market prices
- (3) Leakage of any information that the FX Market Maker has become aware of through its FX Market-Making, or improper transaction using such information
- (4) Submission of a bid or offer, as a Non-FX Market Maker, for the Exchange FX Margin transactions for which it is obligated to submit an MM bid and offer
- (5) Undertaking of brokerage service for the Exchange FX Margin transactions for which it is obligated to submit an MM bid and offer, except where the Exchange determines that it is necessary

Article 13. Moratorium on FX Market-Making and Revocation of Designation as FX Market Maker

13.1 If an FX Market Maker fails to perform the obligations, etc. to be assumed as an FX Market Maker as set forth in Articles 11.1 through 11.4, 11.7 and 11.8 hereof or commits any of the acts set forth in Article 12 hereof, the Exchange may invoke a moratorium on FX Market-Making in whole or in part or revoke designation as FX Market Maker against the said FX Market Maker.

13.2 If the Exchange considers it necessary in light of the condition of market derivatives transactions, etc. on the Exchange Market or any other market, the condition of domestic or international financial transactions, or any other situation, the Exchange may take necessary measures against the concerned FX Market Makers in accordance with the conditions separately prescribed by the Exchange.

Article 14. Exchange FX Margin Contracts for FX Market Makers subject to Moratorium on FX Market-Making or Revocation of Designation as FX Market Maker

When the Exchange invokes a moratorium on FX Market-Making or revokes designation as FX Market Maker, the Exchange may cause unsettled Exchange FX Margin contracts executed based on MM bids and offers submitted by the FX Market Maker to be transferred to any other FX Market Maker or liquidated in the manner that the Exchange deems necessary.

Article 15. Resignation of FX Market Maker

An FX Margin Trading Maker who is an FX Market Maker may resign as FX Market Maker in accordance with the conditions separately prescribed by the Exchange.

Article 16. Exchange FX Margin Contracts for Resigning FX Market Makers

When an FX Market Maker resigns, the Exchange may cause unsettled Exchange FX Margin contracts executed based on MM bids and offers submitted by the FX Market Maker to be transferred to any other FX Market Maker or liquidated in the manner that the Exchange deems necessary.

Article 17. Announcement of Designation, Resignation or Revocation of Designation, etc.

If the Exchange designates an FX Market Maker, invokes a moratorium on FX Market-Making in whole or in part, revokes designation as FX Market Maker, or allows resignation as FX Market Maker pursuant to Article 10, 13 or 15 hereof, the Exchange shall notify all other FX Margin Trading Members to that effect.

Article 17-2. Designated FX Market Maker

17-2.1 The Exchange designates the FX Market Maker for which the FX Exchange Margin arises in the denomination of the Term Currency with respect to the FX cash settlement (meaning the FX cash settlement specified in Article 90-7.1 of the Clearing Regulations) for each type of Cross Currency Pairs transactions as a designated FX Market Maker among the FX Market Makers conducting FX market-making for Cross Currency transactions.

17-2.2 An FX Margin Trading Maker who is a designated FX Market Maker may resign as designated FX Market Maker in accordance with the conditions separately prescribed by the Exchange.

17-2.3 In the case of Article 17-2.2 above, the Exchange may cause the FX Exchange Margin in the denomination of the Term Currency for the Cross Currency Pairs transactions conducted by the resigning designated FX Market Maker, which has arisen for each type of such Cross Currency Pairs transactions, to be liquidated in the manner that the Exchange deems necessary.

CHAPTER V.

METHODS OF EXECUTION, etc. OF EXCHANGE FX MARGIN TRANSACTIONS

Article 18. Precedence of Bids and Offers under the Market-making Method

18.1 Exchange FX Margin transactions on the Exchange Market shall be based on the market-making method in principle.

18.2 MM bids and offers under the market-making method set forth in Article 18.1 above shall be such bids and offers designating a price limit (hereinafter called the “limit order(s)”) and the precedence among them shall be determined as follows: (i) a lower MM offer shall take precedence over any higher MM offer, (ii) a higher MM bid shall take precedence over any lower MM bid, and (iii) in the case of multiple MM bids or MM offers at the same price, an earlier MM bid shall take precedence over any later MM bid and an earlier MM offer shall take precedence over any later MM offer. An offer and a bid designating a price limit are hereinafter called an offer in form of limit order and a bid in form of limit order respectively.

18.3 The precedence of non-MM bids and offers under the market-making method set forth in Article 18.1 above shall be determined as follows.

- (1) In the case of limit orders, (i) a lower offer shall take precedence over any higher offer, (ii) a higher bid shall take precedence over any lower bid, and (iii) in the case of multiple bids or offers at the same price, an earlier bid shall take precedence over any later bid and an earlier offer shall take precedence over any later offer.
- (2) A bid or offer submitted during the Market Trading Period without designating a price limit and made null and void immediately in the absence of a corresponding MM offer or MM bid (hereinafter called the “IC market order”) shall take precedence over a limit order with respect to the price priority. A bid and offer submitted without designating a price limit and made null and void immediately if it is not matched are hereinafter called an IC bid and IC offer respectively.
- (3) A bid or offer submitted without designating a price limit which shall continue in effect even in the absence of a corresponding MM offer or MM bid (hereinafter called a “loss-cut order”) shall take precedence over any limit order with respect to the price priority. A bid submitted without designating a price limit which shall continue in effect even in the absence of a corresponding MM offer and an offer submitted without designating a price limit which shall continue in effect even in the absence of a corresponding MM bid are hereinafter called a “loss-cut bid” and “loss-cut offer” respectively.

18.4 With respect to priorities between an IC market order and a loss-cut order, a bid coming into effect earlier shall take precedence over any bid coming into effect later and an offer coming into effect earlier shall take precedence over any offer coming into effect later. The same shall apply to the priorities among multiple IC market orders and those among multiple loss-cut orders.

Article 18-2. Trigger Order

18-2.1 An FX Margin Trading Member may submit bid and offer which shall take effect upon fulfillment of the conditions set forth below (hereinafter called the “trigger order(s)”), provided however, a trigger order may not be submitted as MM bid or offer.

- (1) An offer (which shall be called the “trigger offer” in Article 18-2.2 below) on the condition that a contract shall be executed at a price designated by an FX Margin Trading Member in advance (hereinafter called the “trigger price”) or lower, or MM bid taking precedence over all other then submitted MM bids shall be submitted at a trigger price or lower during the Market Trading Period
- (2) A bid (which shall be called the “trigger bid” in Article 18-2.2 below) on the condition that a contract shall be executed at a trigger price or higher, or MM offer taking precedence over all other then submitted MM offer shall be submitted at a trigger price or higher during the Market Trading Period

18-2.2 The types of trigger prices shall be as follows.

- (1) Trigger limit order
 - (a) Trigger limit offer (among the trigger offers, meaning an offer designating a price limit and continuing in effect in the absence of a corresponding MM bid)
 - (b) Trigger limit bid (among the trigger bids, meaning a bid designating a price limit and continuing in effect in the absence of a corresponding MM offer)
- (2) Trigger market order
 - (a) Trigger market offer (among the trigger offers, meaning an offer without designating a price limit and continuing in effect in the absence of a corresponding MM bid)
 - (b) Trigger market bid (among the trigger bids, meaning a bid without designating a price limit and continuing in effect in the absence of a corresponding MM offer)

Article 18-3. Priorities of Trigger Orders

18-3.1 The priorities between the trigger limit order coming into effect and all other orders shall be determined as follows.

- (1) The priorities among the trigger limit order coming into effect, the limit order and other trigger limit orders coming into effect shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 18.3(1). In such case, if a trigger limit order and a limit order are at the same price, the one which has come into effect earlier shall take precedence over the other which has come into effect later.
- (2) The trigger limit order coming into effect shall be subordinate to IC market orders, loss-cut orders and trigger market orders coming into effect, with respect to the price priority.
- (3) If multiple trigger limit orders of the same price have come into effect simultaneously, the one accepted by the Exchange earlier shall take precedence over the other accepted by the Exchange later.
- (4) If multiple trigger limit orders of the same price have come into effect at different times, the trigger limit order which has come into effect earlier shall take precedence over the other which has come into effect later.

18-3.2 The priorities between the trigger market order coming into effect and all other orders shall be determined as follows.

- (1) The trigger market order coming into effect shall take precedence over the limit orders and trigger limit orders coming into effect, with respect to the price priority.
- (2) The priorities among the trigger market order coming into effect, IC market order and loss-cut order, the one which has come into effect earlier shall take precedence over the other which has come into effect later.

- (3) If multiple trigger market orders have come into effect simultaneously, the one accepted by the Exchange earlier shall take precedence over the other accepted by the Exchange later.
- (4) If multiple trigger market orders have come into effect at different times, the one which has come into effect earlier shall take precedence over the other which has come into effect later.

Article 19. Individual Auction under the Market-making Method

19.1 With respect to Exchange FX Margin transactions based on the market-making method set forth in Article 18.1 hereof in principle, their contracts shall be executed based on the individual auction for MM bids and offers and based on the individual auction for non-MM bids and offers respectively.

19.2 When, among MM offers and non-MM bids, an MM offer taking precedence over all other then submitted MM offers and a non-MM bid taking precedence over all other then submitted non-MM bids correspond to each other, an Exchange FX Margin contract shall be executed between such corresponding MM offer and non-MM bid at the contract price in the amount equal to the said MM offer, regardless of the time of submission of the said MM offer and non-MM bid.

19.3 When, among MM bids and non-MM offers, an MM bid taking precedence over all other then submitted MM bids and a non-MM offer taking precedence over all other then submitted non-MM offers correspond to each other, an Exchange FX Margin contract shall be executed between such corresponding MM bid and non-MM offer at the contract price in the amount equal to the said MM bid, regardless of the time of submission of the said MM bid and non-MM offer.

Article 22. Posting of Contract Price

If an Exchange FX Margin contract has been executed (except for the contracts executed in accordance with Article 19 of the Trading Regulations), the Exchange shall post the contract price thereof on the Exchange Market.

Article 23. Notice, etc. of Contents Inputted for Bids and Offers

23.1 When any matter relating to a bid or offer has been inputted in accordance with Article 20.2 hereof, the Exchange shall immediately communicate the contents inputted into the FX Trading and Clearing System (hereinafter called “inputted contents”) to the FX Margin Trading Member who has submitted such bid or offer; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to the inputted contents for an MM bid or offer.

23.2 The FX Margin Trading Member shall promptly confirm the inputted contents communicated under Article 23.1 above.

23.3 Any correction to the inputted contents communicated under Article 23.1 above shall be made in accordance with the conditions separately prescribed by the Exchange.

Article 24. Matching of Bid and Offer

When an MM offer and a non-MM bid satisfy the conditions for execution of an Exchange FX Margin contract set forth in Article 19 hereof, or when an MM bid and a non-MM offer satisfy the conditions for execution of an Exchange FX Margin contract set forth in the said Article, the bid and the offer shall be matched by the FX Trading and Clearing System in accordance with the price and time priority set forth herein.

Article 25. Notice of Execution of Exchange FX Margin Contract

25.1 Upon execution of an Exchange FX Margin contract, the Exchange shall immediately communicate the details thereof to the FX Margin Trading Member who has submitted the bid or offer for such contract.

25.2 The FX Margin Trading Member shall promptly confirm the details of the Exchange FX Margin contract communicated under Article 25.1 above.

Article 26. Position Adjustment Program

26.1 A position adjustment program is a program to effectuate the events of (i) and (ii) as follows for each type of Exchange FX Margin contracts if one or more FX Market Maker(s) hold(s) a short position of a specific type of Exchange FX Margin contracts and one or more FX Market Maker(s) hold(s) a long position of the said Exchange FX Margin contracts at the close of the Market Trading Period of a specific trading day: (i) an offer to reduce the aforesaid long position and a bid to reduce the aforesaid short position shall automatically be submitted as between the concerned FX Market Makers and (ii) an Exchange FX Margin contract shall be executed retroactively as of the close of the aforesaid trading day's Market Trading Period as between the bid and offer set forth in (i) above at the contract price separately prescribed by the Exchange.

26.2 The volume of Exchange FX Margin contracts to be executed under the position adjustment program set forth in Article 26.1 above shall be as separately prescribed by the Exchange for each such FX Market Maker.

26.3 Upon execution of Exchange FX Margin contracts under the position adjustment program, the Exchange shall, in accordance with the conditions separately prescribed by the Exchange, communicate their contract prices and traded volume to the FX Margin Trading Members who have executed the concerned contracts.

CHAPTER VI.

OFFSETTING TRANSACTIONS

Article 27. Offsetting Transactions

Matters necessary for offsetting transactions for Exchange FX Margin contracts shall be governed by Chapter XIII of the Clearing Regulations.

CHAPTER VII.

FX SETTLEMENT PRICE, ETC

Article 28. FX Settlement Price, etc.

Matters necessary for FX settlement prices and payment or receipt of monies for Exchange FX Margin transactions and others shall be governed by Chapter XIII of the Clearing Regulations.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Article 29. Identification of Parties to Exchange FX Margin Contract

29.1 A party involved in an Exchange FX Margin contract shall be identified by its corporate name or trade name or its abbreviated name.

29.2 The abbreviated name of an FX Margin Trading Member shall be determined by the Exchange.

Article 30. Dispatch of Notice on Exchange FX Margin Contract

30.1 An FX Margin Trading Member shall provide a monthly statement to an FX Margin Customer holding any Unsettled Positions for Exchange FX Margin contracts for its account to report on the state of such unsettled Exchange FX Margin contract; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply if an FX Margin Customer is a financial instruments firm, an exchange licensed firm or a registered financial institution.

30.2 The following Items shall be described in a statement set forth in Article 30.1 above.

- (1) Type of the Exchange FX Margin contract
- (2) Trading day
- (3) Time of matching
- (4) Whether the Exchange FX Margin contract is a sale contract or a purchase contract
- (5) Trading volume
- (6) Contract price

30.3 Instead of dispatching a monthly statement set forth in Article 30.1 above, an FX Margin Trading Member may notify an FX Margin Customer of the matters that would otherwise be described in the said statement, with its approval, by means of a method utilizing an electronic data processing and network organization or a method utilizing any other information and telecommunication technology to be separately prescribed by the Exchange. In this case, the FX Margin Trading Member shall be deemed to have provided a monthly statement referred to in the foregoing sentence.

Article 31. Recordkeeping for Exchange FX Margin Transactions based on Customer's Order

An FX Margin Trading Member shall keep the records separately prescribed by the Exchange with respect to the Exchange FX Margin transactions based on an FX Margin Customer's order.

Article 32. Method of Notice, etc. of Total Traded Volume, Total Contract Value, etc.

32.1 The Exchange shall provide each FX Margin Trading Member with the daily information about the items set forth in the Appendix attached hereto as prescribed under Article 130 of the Act, by means of notification and announcement via electronic recording media on every business day; provided, however, such notification and announcement may be made in writing rather than electronic recording media if the Exchange deems it difficult to use the latter due to failure thereof or under similar circumstances.

32.2 Instead of the notification and announcement set forth in Article 32.1 above, the Exchange may communicate the matters that would otherwise be described in the said notification and announcement by means of a method utilizing an electronic data processing and network organization or a method utilizing any other information and telecommunication technology to be separately prescribed by the Exchange. In this case, the Exchange shall be deemed to have provided the notification and announcement referred to in the foregoing sentence.

Article 33. Reporting to Prime Minister

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 81-2 of the Trading Regulations, the Exchange shall report on daily market and other information about the Exchange's market for Exchange FX Margin transactions to the Prime Minister as required by Article 131 of the Act by electronic recording media on every trading day; provided, however, that such report may be made in writing rather than electronic recording media if the Exchange deems it difficult to use the latter due to failure thereof or under similar circumstances.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

1. The amended Special Provisions shall take effect as from October 27, 2008.
2. The trigger offer under Article 18.3(3) (as not amended) which was submitted before the enforcement of these amended Special Provisions and has not come into effect at such enforcement shall be deemed as trigger market offer under Article 18-2.2(2)(a) hereof (as amended).
3. The trigger bid under Article 18.3(4) (as not amended) which was submitted before the enforcement of these amended Special Provisions and has not come into effect at such enforcement shall be deemed as trigger market bid under Article 18-2.2(2)(b) hereof (as amended).
